Chapter 3

The Morning After^{ad}

1) [Next morning, [when it was discovered] that Eliza had run away^{ad}

[with her little boy,] there was great excitement and confusion_S

[all^{ad} over the house].

2) Mrs. Shelby was_S very glad._C

3) "Thank God!" she said._S

4) "I hope Eliza will get right away. I could not bear to think of

(Harry being sold to that cruel man.)"

5) Mr. Shelby was angry.

6) "Haley knew I didn't want to sell the child," he said.

7) "He will blame me for this."

8) One person ^S only ^{ad} was ₌ quite silent, and that ^S was ₌ Aunt Chloe. _C

9) She ^S went _V on, ^{ad} making _(v) the breakfast _(o) [as if she ^{S'} heard and ^{V'} saw nothing _{O'} [of the excitement ^a [round her. ^a]]

10) All the little black boys ^S belonging to the house ^A thought _V ^{that} it was _{O S' ='} fine fun.) _{C'}

11) Very soon, about a dozen young imps ^{S(s)} were roosting, [like so many crows, [on the railings, waiting _(v) for Haley to _{(s)'} come. _{(v)'}]]

12) They wanted to see how angry he would be, [when he heard the news.]]))

hearts' content].

16) [At last] Haley became so angry, [that Mr. Shelby offered to

21) This frightened the horses so much [that they galloped off faster than before.]

22) Haley rushed up and down, [shouting] and [using] dreadful, naughty words,] and [stamping] [with rage] [all the time.]

23) [At last, [about twelve o'clock], Sam came riding up [with Haley's horse].

24) "He's cotched," he said, seemingly very proud [of himself.]
